

2012 VASEY ACADEMY SCHOLARSHIP

(May be duplicated)

University of Missouri

Robert J. Trulaske, Sr. College of Business

The Vasey (Vay-See) Academy Scholarships are designated specifically for minority students—African-Americans, Alaskan Native, Hispanic-Americans, Asian-Americans, Pacific Islanders, and American Indians – who show outstanding promise and are planning to pursue a Business or Accountancy degree in the Robert J. Trulaske, Sr. College of Business at the University of Missouri.

The scholarship's financial value is $1,000 and is a one-time award. Students selected for the scholarship are required to enroll in the one-credit hour Vasey Academy Seminar course during their first semester as a Vasey Scholar. During the fall semester the scholarship is only available to incoming freshmen. During the spring semester the scholarship is open to current freshmen and sophomores. These students are selected on the basis of: high school class rank, ACT Composite scores, GPA, ethnicity, and level of interest in business.
