

Robert J. Trulaske, Sr.
College of Business

University of Missouri

Undergraduate Advising Office
111 Cornell Hall
Columbia, MO 65211-2600

umcbusadvisingdesk@missouri.edu
573-882-7073

The Trulaske College of Business Undergraduate Advising Office supports business student success from a student's entrance to the college through graduation.

Find Your Advisor

MU Connect → Success Network
Every business student is assigned a professional academic advisor.

Schedule an Advising Appointment

MU Connect → Success Network or call 573-882-7073.
To discuss course scheduling or other in-depth topics, make an appointment with your advisor.

Advisors On-Call

Available weekdays from 10-11:30 a.m. & 1-4:30 p.m. in 111 Cornell Hall to assist with general questions and troubleshooting.

What Students Can Expect from the Undergraduate Advising Office

- Support from entrance to graduation
- Assistance navigating schedule, certificate, minor, and degree options
- Inspiration to discover academic interests in business
- Encouragement identifying and utilizing resources to self-advocate for your academic, personal and professional development
- Empowerment to hold yourself accountable to a standard of excellence

What the Undergraduate Advising Office Expects of Students

- Professionalism of respect, punctuality, and preparedness.
- Activism. Get involved in and out of class and campus.
- Motivation. Stay informed. Plan ahead. READ YOUR EMAIL.
- Self Advocation. Ask for help EARLY. Speak about your ideas.
- Responsibility for your education and actions.

For more information and additional resources review

business.missouri.edu/advising

University of Missouri