Course Offering and Prerequisites

Course Overview:

This is an introductory international business course open to students of all backgrounds of study. The emphasis will be on understanding various issues in international business with a focus on Peru and South America and the area's trading relationships in the global economy.

Undergraduate – MGMT 3901-02: Special Topics in Management – International Business, Peru Class #61636

3 credit hours; graded S/U; Instructor: Miguel Ayllon; no prerequisites)

Consult with your academic advisor about how this course would satisfy your degree requirements.

Note: these courses were designed by the Registrar's Office as spring courses. Educational fees for three credit hours are costs you normally see on your spring bill. Non-resident students will pay the usual non-resident fees. Actual fees for the spring semester are set by the Board of Curators during their April meeting. Let your academic advisor know if these three credits will put you over your maximum for spring. All students should check with their academic advisors on how this course would satisfy graduation and major area requirements. Please notify study abroad staff in 213 Cornell Hall of any exam conflicts prior to February 7, 2022.

- The course will be conducted in two parts:
  1. Six pre-departure classes at MU will lay the groundwork for principles of international business with some focus on the business strategies and cultural dimensions of Peru.
  2. An international travel experience, which includes experiential learning exercises, group discussions and presentations, and company visits. The company visits are an essential part of the learning experience and allow students to discuss with company managers international business strategies in marketing, finance, and management. The schedule while abroad allows free time for sightseeing and visiting local cultural and historic sites.
- Pre-departure classes at MU:

Pre-departure classes begin February 14, 2023, in Cornell Hall and you are required to enroll before the first pre-departure class to go on the program.

Meeting schedule:

- Tuesdays, February 14 – March 21, 2023
- 6:00-8:30 pm; Room 030 Cornell Hall

Note: You are required to attend every pre-departure class to prepare for the program, or you will not be allowed to participate in the program. Special circumstances may allow flexibility on this requirement but it must be approved by the program director before the class absence. If you are dropped from the program due to non-attendance, you will be subject to the penalties listed under the Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties portion of this document.

Paying to Study Abroad

- Student Financial Aid:
This 3-credit hour course qualifies for financial aid. Before going to the financial aid office (11 Jesse Hall), visit the Trulaske Study Abroad office (213 Cornell Hall) for the financial aid worksheet. It is highly recommended all students meet with their Financial Aid advisor to discuss paying for study abroad.
- Scholarships:
Students can apply for scholarships through ScholarshipUniverse (Missouri.scholarshipuniverse.com). The scholarship application is due January 27, 2023, and decisions will be made in early February.

Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties

The withdrawal fees do not increase until December 1, 2022. You must email the Student Service Coordinator (TrulaskeAbroad@missouri.edu) documenting withdrawal from the program AND return to the online application to change the status to WITHDRAWAL: Declined. The following schedule indicates program withdrawal fees that will be billed to the student account:

Amount Billed in May	Withdrawal After
$100	Application Date (no exceptions)
$600	December 1, 2022
$1,500	January 1, 2023
$2,500	February 1, 2023
$3,250 (full program fee)	February 23, 2023

Withdrawal dates if the University cancels the program due to health and safety reasons:

To clarify, after December 31st, if the University must cancel the program for health and safety reasons (including COVID-19), students will be charged the amounts below as we will not be able to receive a full refund from our partners in Peru. The billed amount can be used as credit for a future study abroad program.

Amount Billed	Program Cancelled After
$1,500	January 1, 2023
$2,500	February 1, 2023
$3,250 (full program fee)	February 23, 2023

Note: The date of withdrawal notification is the date the notification email is sent to the Student Services Coordinator. Depending on the date you withdraw, the Study Abroad Office may not be able to get a refund from the vendor; your refund will be relative to the costs that can be recovered. If you have not been billed the program fee at the time of your withdrawal, you will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

Visas & Travel Documents

You must have a valid passport with an expiration date of more than six months after the program return date.

- A copy of your passport is due to the Study Abroad office (213 Cornell) by February 7, 2023
- US citizens do not need a visa for visits to Peru
- If you are not a US citizen, check the country's web page to determine if you need to apply for a tourist visa

COVID-19 Vaccinations

- The Austral Group is our program provider and requires all participants must be fully vaccinated against COVID – 19. All participants must provide their vaccine cards to the Study Abroad office by February 7, 2023.

IMPORTANT: If you are a student with a disability and anticipate requesting accommodations while studying abroad, we encourage you to notify the MU Office of Disability Services as early as possible (<http://disabilityservices.missouri.edu>). Early notification is essential to allow us time to ensure that appropriate arrangements and reasonable accommodations can be provided, both by the program and our Study Abroad partner organizations.

Disclaimer: The costs and schedules presented in this document are best estimates performed in good faith and do not represent any kind of fixed contract. The nature of dealing with foreign partners makes it difficult to plan exactly how this study abroad program will be finalized.

Program Cancellation Policy for Student Financial Liability

I understand that in some special circumstances I may not receive full academic credit for the study abroad program for which I have applied. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- Cancellation of the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- A decision by the University, in its sole discretion, that cancellation of the program is appropriate based on health, safety, or similar circumstances
- My inability to participate in or complete the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- My dismissal from the program

I understand that in any of these circumstances, I will be refunded only those costs that can be recovered by the University of Missouri or the University's partner program. If I have not been billed the program fee at the time of my withdrawal, I understand that I will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

The itinerary of this program may be modified by the Trulaske College of Business and/or the University of Missouri due to health, safety, or similar concerns. The withdrawal fees listed above will apply to students if this occurs. Transportation change fees and expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
