The program begins when you arrive at the hostel on May 12 and ends when you check out on or before 9am on June 8. Program transportation from Malpensa Airport (MXP) to the hostel will be available at specific times. If you do not use this service, you will be responsible for getting to and from the airport by alternative means.

B. Location

The courses will be conducted at the University of Bergamo (BU), located in Bergamo, Italy, near the foothills of the Italian Alps. Bergamo hosts a population of about 120,000 citizens, and Bergamo Province has 1.1 million residents. The region contains many lucrative industries in fabrics, apparels, and fashion accessories. Bergamo is an old city dating back to the 12th Century. The high part of the city, "Citta Alta," represents Bergamo's major attraction and dates back to the 15th century. It contains many very old buildings, beautiful architecture and has many nice restaurants, shops, and walking paths.

C. Lodging and Meals

During the Bergamo program, you will stay in a youth hostel. Breakfast and afternoon snacks are provided. Meals can be taken at the University cafeteria (where students and faculty interact with each other) and the café across the street from the business school. Public transportation allows for easy and flexible access to getting around Bergamo. You will receive a monthly bus pass as part of the program. You will have a room with roommates at the youth hostel for the entire four-week period.
