Program Details

- Arrival & Departure:
Students are responsible for arranging and purchasing their airfare. During Marketing 4940 or Business Administration 4500, you will be assisted with information on program flight itineraries and how to book flights to travel together. Do not purchase your flight without prior approval from the Director of Study Abroad (trulaskeabroad@missouri.edu). Failure to provide a paid ticket itinerary by February 1, 2025, may result in being dropped from the program.

Plan to arrive at Jakarta airport on the morning of May 20, 2025

The program ends upon check-out on May 31, 2025

Note: The Study Abroad Program and MU will not be responsible for any expenses incurred (including lodging) due to delays or cancellations of flight arrangements made by the student. Students concerned about the costs they might incur due to flight delays or cancellations are encouraged to purchase travel insurance.

- Location:
The program events will be centered in Singapore, Singapore, and Jakarta, Indonesia. Company visits will involve short bus trips to locations outside the city.
- Lodging and Meals:
All lodging will be in three/four-star hotels and include all breakfasts. One group social with appetizers and one dinner will be organized. Lodging - TBD

Course Offering and Prerequisites

1/27/2025 *Itinerary subject to change

- Course Overview:

This is an intensive course focused on marketing research and consulting. The emphasis will be on understanding various issues in marketing with an emphasis in Southeast Asia and the area's trading relationships in the global economy.

- Undergraduate – MKTG 4940: Professional Marketing Internship Class# TBD

3 credit hours; graded A-F; Instructor: Brady Hodges;

Prerequisites: instructor consent

Note: This course was designed by the Registrar's Office as spring course. Educational fees for three credit hours are costs you would normally see on your spring bill. Non-resident students will pay the usual non-resident fees. Actual fees for the spring semester are set by the Board of Curators during their previous April meeting. Let your academic advisor know if these three credits will put you over your maximum for spring. All students should check with their academic advisors on how this course would satisfy graduation and major area requirements.

All students should check with their academic advisors on how this course would satisfy graduation and major area requirements.

- The course will be conducted in two parts:

1. Business Administration 4500 or Marketing 4940 is a 2nd 8-week course Spring 2025 semester (March 18, April 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, May 6 | 6:00-8:00 pm).
2. An international travel experience, which includes experiential learning exercises, group discussions and presentations, and company visits. The company visits are an essential part of the learning experience and allow students to discuss with company managers international business strategies in marketing, finance, and management. The schedule while abroad allows free time for sightseeing and visiting local cultural and historic sites.

Note: You are required to attend every class to prepare for the program and complete course credit, or you will not be allowed to participate in the program. Special circumstances may allow flexibility on this requirement but must be approved by Professor Hodges before the class absence. If you are dropped from the program due to non-attendance, you will be subject to the penalties listed under the Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties portion of this document.

Paying for Study Abroad

- Student Financial Aid
This 3-credit-hour course qualifies for financial aid. The financial aid worksheet can be found on mystudyabroad.com. It is highly recommended that all students meet with their Financial Aid advisor to discuss paying for study abroad.
- Scholarships

Students can apply for scholarships through ScholarshipUniverse (Missouri.scholarshipuniverse.com). The scholarship application is due December 6, and decisions will be made in mid-October.

Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties: Withdrawal dates for a student cancellation

Students must contact the Student Services Coordinator directly by e-mail at TrulaskeAbroad.missouri.edu, documenting any withdrawals from the intended study abroad program. The withdrawal date will be determined based on the date shown in the e-mail sent to the Student Services Coordinator at 213 Cornell Hall, stating intent to withdraw from the program.

Amount Billed	Withdrawal After
$100 withdrawal fee	After the student commitment date
$1,500 withdrawal fee	November 15, 2024
$2,500 withdrawal fee	December 15, 2024
$TBA (full program fee)	January 15, 2025

Note: The date of withdrawal notification is the date the notification email is sent to the Student Services Coordinator. Depending on the date you withdraw, the Study Abroad Office may not be able to get a refund from the vendor; your refund will be relative to the costs that can be recovered. If you have not been billed the program fee at the time of your withdrawal, you will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

Visas & Travel Documents

You must have a valid passport with an expiration date more than six months after the program return date

- A copy of your passport is due to the Study Abroad office (213 Cornell) by February 5, 2025
- If you are not a U.S. citizen, check the country's web page to determine if you need to apply for a tourist visa

IMPORTANT: If you are a student with a disability and anticipate requesting accommodations while studying abroad, we encourage you to notify the MU Office of Disability Services as early as possible (<http://disabilityservices.missouri.edu>). Early notification is essential to allow us time to ensure that appropriate arrangements and reasonable accommodations can be provided, both by the program and our Study Abroad partner organizations.

Disclaimer: The costs and schedules presented in this document are best estimates performed in good faith and do not represent any kind of fixed contract. The nature of dealing with foreign partners makes it difficult to plan exactly how this study abroad program will be finalized.

Program Cancellation Policy for Student Financial Liability

I understand that in some special circumstances I may not receive full academic credit for the study abroad program for which I have applied. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- Cancellation of the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- A decision by the University, in its sole discretion, that cancellation of the program is appropriate based on health, safety, or similar circumstances
- My inability to participate in or complete the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- My dismissal from the program

I understand that in any of these circumstances, I will be refunded only those costs that can be recovered by the University of Missouri or the University's partner program. If I have not been billed the program fee at the time of my withdrawal, I understand that I will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

The itinerary of this program may be modified by the Trulaske College of Business and/or the University of Missouri due to health, safety, or similar concerns. The withdrawal fees listed above will apply to students if this occurs. Transportation change fees and expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
