Program Details• Arrival & Departure

Students are responsible for arranging and purchasing their airfare. During the spring pre-departure classes, you will be assisted with information on program flight itineraries and how to book flights for traveling together. Do not purchase your flight without prior approval from the Study Abroad Office (trulaskeabroad@missouri.edu). Failure to provide a paid ticket itinerary by November 18, 2025, may result in being dropped from the program.

Plan to arrive in New York December 16, 2025. Airport information will be shared at a later date.

The program ends upon check-out on December 23, 2025

Note: The Study Abroad Program and MU will not be responsible for any expenses incurred (including lodging) due to delays or cancellations of flight arrangements made by the student. Students concerned about the costs they might incur due to flight delays or cancellations are encouraged to purchase travel insurance.

• Location

The program events are in New York, New York. Company visits will involve transport to locations around the city.

• Lodging and Meals

Lodging will be Four Points by Sheraton Midtown in Times Square, complimentary breakfast included.

Course Offering and Prerequisites

Course Overview:

This is an introductory international business course open to students of all backgrounds of study. The emphasis will be on understanding various issues in international business with a focus on the New York City melting pot of culture, business, supply chain, and trading relationships in the global economy.

Undergraduate – MGMT 3901: Special Topics in Management – International Business, New York Class #TBA

3 credit hours; graded S/U; Instructor TBA; no prerequisites

Consult with your academic advisor about how this course would satisfy your degree requirements.

Note: these courses were designed by the Registrar's Office as fall courses. Educational fees for three credit hours are costs you normally see on your fall bill. Non-resident students will pay the usual non-resident fees.

- The course will be conducted in two parts:
 1. Seven pre-departure classes at MU will lay the groundwork for principles of international business with focus on the New York City melting pot of culture, business, supply chain, and trading relationships in the global economy.
 2. A travel experience, which includes experiential learning exercises, group discussions and presentations, and company visits. The company visits are an essential part of the learning experience and allow students to discuss with company managers international business strategies in marketing, finance, and management. The schedule while on location allows free time for sightseeing and visiting local cultural and historic sites.
- Pre-departure classes at MU:

Pre-departure classes begin October 21, 2025, in Cornell Hall and you are required to enroll before the first pre-departure class to go on the program.

Meeting schedule:

- Tuesday, October 21
- Tuesday, October 28
- Tuesday, November 4
- Tuesday, November 11
- Tuesday, November 18
- Tuesday, December 2
- Tuesday, December 9
- 6:00-8:00 pm; Room TBD

Note: You are required to attend every pre-departure class to prepare for the program, or you will not be allowed to participate in the program. Special circumstances may allow flexibility on this requirement but it must be approved by the program director before the class absence. If you are dropped from the program due to non-attendance, you will be subject to the penalties listed under the Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties portion of this document.

Paying to Study Abroad

- Student Financial Aid:
This 3-credit hour course qualifies for financial aid. Before going to the financial aid office (11 Jesse Hall), visit 213 Cornell Hall for the financial aid worksheet. It is highly recommended all students meet with their Financial Aid advisor to discuss paying for study abroad.
- Scholarships:
The program application and the scholarship application will be one packet students will submit prior to October 1, 2025. Scholarship decisions will be made on a rolling basis.

Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties

The withdrawal fees do not increase until September 14, 2025. You must email the Student Service Coordinator (TrulaskeAbroad@missouri.edu) documenting withdrawal from the program AND return to the online application to change the status to WITHDRAWAL: Declined. The following schedule indicates program withdrawal fees that will be billed to the student account:

Amount Billed in May	Withdrawal After
$100 deposit	Commitment post-interview
$1,000	September 14, 2025
$1,500	October 14, 2025
$2,000	November 14, 2025
$2,500 (full program fee)	November 25, 2025

Note: The date of withdrawal notification is the date the notification email is sent to the Student Services Coordinator. Depending on the date you withdraw, the Study Abroad Office may not be able to get a refund from the vendor; your refund will be relative to the costs that can be recovered. If you have not been billed the program fee at the time of your withdrawal, you will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

Visas & Travel Documents

- In the United States, you need a valid U.S. government-issued photo ID or a passport from your country of origin to travel through security. You must show that the name on your boarding pass matches the legal name on your unexpired government-issued ID.

IMPORTANT: If you are a student with a disability and anticipate requesting accommodations while studying abroad, we encourage you to notify the MU Office of Disability Services as early as possible (<http://disabilityservices.missouri.edu>). Early notification is essential to allow us time to ensure that appropriate arrangements and reasonable accommodations can be provided, both by the program and our Study Abroad partner organizations.

Disclaimer: The costs and schedules presented in this document are best estimates performed in good faith and do not represent any kind of fixed contract. The nature of dealing with foreign partners makes it difficult to plan exactly how this study abroad program will be finalized.

Program Cancellation Policy for Student Financial Liability

I understand that in some special circumstances I may not receive full academic credit for the study abroad program for which I have applied. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- Cancellation of the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- A decision by the University, in its sole discretion, that cancellation of the program is appropriate based on health, safety, or similar circumstances
- My inability to participate in or complete the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- My dismissal from the program

I understand that in any of these circumstances, I will be refunded only those costs that can be recovered by the University of Missouri or the University's partner program. If I have not been billed the program fee at the time of my withdrawal, I understand that I will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

The itinerary of this program may be modified by the Trulaske College of Business and/or the University of Missouri due to health, safety, or similar concerns. The withdrawal fees listed above will apply to students if this occurs. Transportation change fees and expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
