Management 3901 or Management 8001: Topics in Management – International Business
December 29, 2025 – January 10, 2026

Program Highlights

- Compare the economies and business practices of Germany, Netherlands, and the European Union.
- Meet with managers and discuss international business strategies during company visits.
- Earn three hours of MU course credit (no prerequisites required).
- Open to all majors! Note: graduate students must get prior approval from the Graduate Programs Office.

Participation Requirements

- Be in good academic and disciplinary standing at MU. If you have ever received disciplinary action from the University, please consult with the Office of Student Accountability & Support to confirm you are eligible to participate in a study abroad program prior to submitting your application.
- Have a valid passport with an expiration date more than six months after the program return date.
- Complete the online application process, including all necessary risk and release forms.
- Meet the minimum health insurance requirements set by the University. As part of the program fee, you are enrolled in the University's GeoBlue Health plan for the duration of the program. You must visit the GeoBlue website, print your ID card, and familiarize yourself with the plan and procedures for health emergencies.
- Follow acceptable behavior outlined in the MU Student Conduct Manual and the MU Conditions of Program Participation and Program Acceptance contract through the Trulaske College of Business.

Program Details

- Arrival & Departure:

Students are responsible for arranging and purchasing their airfare. During the fall pre-departure classes, you will be assisted with information on program flight itineraries and how to book flights for traveling together. Do not purchase your flight without prior approval from the Study Abroad Office (trulaskeabroad@missouri.edu). Failure to provide a paid ticket itinerary by December 1, 2025, may result in being dropped from the program.

Plan to arrive in Frankfurt (FRA) morning of December 30, 2025

The program ends upon check-out on January 10, 2026. Students will fly home from Amsterdam Airport Schiphol (AMS).

Note: The Study Abroad Program and MU will not be responsible for any expenses incurred (including lodging) due to delays or cancellations of flight arrangements made by the student. Students concerned about the costs they might incur due to flight delays or cancellations are encouraged to purchase travel insurance.

- Location:

The program events will be centered in Frankfurt, Germany and Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Company visits will involve short bus trips to locations outside the city.

- Lodging and Meals:

All lodging will be in three/four-star hotels and include all breakfasts. One group social with appetizers and one dinner will be organized.

Course Offering and Prerequisites

- Course Overview:

This is an introductory international business course open to students of all backgrounds of study. The emphasis will be on understanding various issues in international business with an emphasis on Europe and the area's trading relationships in the global economy.

- Undergraduate – MGMT 3901: Special Topics in Management – International Business, Frankfurt and Amsterdam

3 credit hours; graded S/U; Instructor: TBD; no prerequisites

- Consult with your academic advisor on any questions about how this course would satisfy your degree requirements.

- Graduate – MGMT 8001: Special Topics in Management – International Business, Frankfurt and Amsterdam.

3 credit hours; graded S/U; Instructor: TBD; no prerequisites

- Consult with your academic advisor on any questions about how this course would satisfy your degree requirements.

Note: These courses were designed by the Registrar's Office as spring courses. Educational fees for three credit hours are costs you would normally see on your spring bill. Non-resident students will pay the usual non-resident fees. Actual fees for the spring semester are set by the Board of Curators during their April meeting. Let your academic advisor know if these three credits will put you over your maximum for spring. All students should check with their academic advisors on how this course would satisfy graduation and major area requirements. Any exams during this time will be proctored. Please notify study abroad staff in 213 Cornell Hall of any exam conflicts prior to October 14, 2025.

- The course will be conducted in two parts:

1. Five pre-departure classes at MU that will lay the groundwork for principles of international business with some focus on the business strategies and cultural dimensions of Germany and the Netherlands.
2. An international travel experience, which includes experiential learning exercises, group discussions and presentations, and company visits. Company visits are an essential part of the learning experience and allow students to discuss international business strategies with company managers in marketing, finance, and management. The schedule while abroad allows free time for sightseeing and visiting local cultural and historic sites.
3. Students are required to attend all pre-departure courses, and all company and cultural visits.

- Pre-departure classes at MU

Pre-departure classes will be held beginning October 28, 2025, in Cornell Hall, which you are required to enroll in before the first pre-departure class to go on the program.

- Undergraduates: Business Administration (BUS_AD) _0553
- Graduates: Business Administration (BUS_AD) _0582

Meeting schedule:

- Tuesdays, October 28 – December 9, 2025
- 6:00-8:30 pm; Cornell Hall
- No class November 11, 2025 - Veterans Day
- No class November 25, 2025 - Thanksgiving Break

Note: You are required to attend every pre-departure class to prepare for the program, or you will not be allowed to participate in the program. Special circumstances may allow flexibility on this requirement but must be approved by the program director before the class absence. If you are dropped from the program due to non-attendance, you will be subject to the penalties listed under the Withdrawal Procedure & Penalties portion of this document.

Program Cancellation Policy for Student Financial Liability

I understand that in some special circumstances I may not receive full academic credit for the study abroad program for which I have applied. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- Cancellation of the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- A decision by the University, in its sole discretion, that cancellation of the program is appropriate based on health, safety, or similar circumstances
- My inability to participate in or complete the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- My dismissal from the program

I understand that in any of these circumstances, I will be refunded only those costs that can be recovered by the University of Missouri or the University's partner program. If I have not been billed the program fee at the time of my withdrawal, I understand that I will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

The itinerary of this program may be modified by the Trulaske College of Business and/or the University of Missouri due to health, safety, or similar concerns. The withdrawal fees listed above will apply to students if this occurs. Transportation change fees and expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
