3. Program Details

A. Program beginning and end

The program begins when you arrive at the hotel on May 17 and ends when you check out on or before 11am on June 13.

B. Location

The courses will be conducted at the University of Bergamo (UniBG), located in Bergamo, Italy, near the foothills of the Italian Alps. Bergamo hosts a population of about 120,000 citizens, and Bergamo Province has 1.1 million residents. The region contains many lucrative industries in fabrics, apparels, and fashion accessories. Bergamo is an old city dating back to the 12th Century. The high part of the city, "Citta Alta," represents Bergamo's major attraction and dates back to the 15th century. It contains many very old buildings, beautiful architecture and has many nice restaurants, shops, and walking paths.

C. Lodging and Meals

During the Bergamo program, you will stay in a B&B Hotel. Breakfast and afternoon snacks are provided. Meals can be taken at the University cafeteria (where students and faculty interact with each other) and the café across the street from the business school. Public transportation allows for easy and flexible access to getting around Bergamo. You will receive a monthly bus pass as part of the program. You will have a room with roommates at the youth hostel for the entire four-week period.

4. Course Offerings and Prerequisites

The University of Missouri (MU) and Bergamo University (UniBG) will both offer three courses for students to choose 6 credits from.

International business. Students are required to attend all lectures, company, and cultural visits.

All Students, including Non-Business majors, should check with their academic advisor on how these credits can be applied to their graduation requirements. All hours are MU summer school credit hours.

Note: If insufficient students sign up, the college reserves the right to reduce the quantity of course offerings.

Class enrollment will be fairly evenly distributed, with first preference given to upper classmen and students majoring in the particular topic. You should plan to discuss these courses and this study abroad program with your advisor to clarify exactly how these courses will satisfy the graduation requirements for your particular major or emphasis area.

Pre-departure Class meetings at MU

Prior to the start of the program, pre-departure class sessions will be held in Cornell Hall, beginning in April. The purpose of these class meetings will be to provide lectures on the principles of international business, review information regarding the companies that will be visited and orientation to the host country, travel administration, and safety abroad.

This is a non-credit course for which you will be required to register before the first day of the pre-departure class, in order to go on the program. You will not be charged any educational fees for this “course”.

Undergrads - Business Administration _0571
Class # TBD

Class Schedule: Tuesdays
• April 7 – May 5
• 6:30-8:30pm
• Location TBD

NOTE: It is a requirement of this program that you attend all of these class sessions to prepare for your program. You must attend all of the classes or you will not be allowed to participate in this program. Possible special circumstances may allow flexibility on this requirement but would have to be approved by the program director prior to missing the class. If you are dropped from the program because of non-attendance – you will be subject to the penalties listed in section 10 of this document.

5. Student Graduation Ceremony

Graduating students may want to or need to attend the graduation ceremony which will conflict with the program departure date. See a Student Services Coordinator in 213 Cornell Hall for details.

6. Weekend Travel

Long weekends accommodate travel to other destinations during the 4-week program. This travel is at your expense and discretion, and class attendance policies will remain in effect upon resumption of next week class sessions. Students are also free to remain at the B&B hotel on weekends for the duration of the program.

7. Travel to program site from the U.S.

The program fee does not include roundtrip airfare cost from the US to Italy. You must fly on your own or with friends by arranging your own flight itineraries and reservations; however, you should coordinate your flight plans to arrive at the Milan Malpensa airport during the morning of Sunday, May 17. The Milan Malpensa airport (code is MXP) will be your final destination airport as the common arrival point for this program. During the spring class meetings, you will be assisted with information on program staff flight itineraries and how to book flights for traveling together.

8. Estimated Budget

The following budget may be used for planning purposes.

Student Planning Budget
Tuition (resident) (6 credit hours)	$2,950
Tuition (nonresident) (6 credit hours)	$3,724
Program Fee	$4,950
MU International Center Study Abroad Fee	$245
Visa	$8
Airfare (estimated)	$1,800
Estimated cost for Missouri residents	$9,953
Estimated Cost for non-Missouri residents	$10,727

Prices are subject to change.

Note: Tuition cost is set by the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri. Non-resident students pay their usual additional non-resident fees. Provided you are taking courses necessary for graduation, this simply shifts tuition costs from one term to another.

Expenses Included in Program Fee:

- Lodging for the trip duration
- Meals included in the program fees, as noted on the itinerary
- Culture and company visits and program ground transportation
- Program sticker and grad cord
- MU GeoBlue Health Insurance
- Pizza party and t-shirt exchange
- Final Dinner Gala
- 24/7 Student Support while on program
- Repatriation/medical evacuation insurance

Expenses NOT Included in Program Fee:

- Round trip transportation from the US to Milan.
- Weekend travel to other parts of Italy or Europe and daily personal expenses including non-program activities.
- Meals, except for program-sponsored events.
- Visa, passport, passport renewal, or passport application fees.

9. Schedule of Payments

Students will be billed the program fee, summer tuition, courses fees, and the MU International Center Study Abroad fee in mid-May.

10. Withdrawal from Program

Students must contact the Student Services Coordinator directly by e-mail at TrulaskeAbroad@umsystem.edu documenting any withdrawals from the intended study abroad program. Withdrawal date will be determined to be the date shown on the e-mail that is sent to the Student Services Coordinator in 213 Cornell Hall stating intent to withdraw from the program.

Amount	Withdrawal After
$100 withdrawal fee	After Date of Application – no exceptions.
$1,000 withdrawal fee	March 1
$2,500 withdrawal fee	April 1
Total Program Fee ($4,950) withdrawal fee	May 1

Depending on the date that you withdraw from the program, the study abroad department may or may not be able to get a refund from the vendor. Your refund will be relative to the costs that can be recovered. If you have not been billed the program fee at the time of your withdrawal – you will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program. Any withdrawal fees will be billed in May 2026.

11. Visas and Travel Documents

- All students will need a valid US passport or appropriate passport/documentation from their country of citizenship valid for at least 6 months after your return date.
- U.S. citizens will need a visa to visit Italy. Students will apply for their visa during pre-departure class.
- Non-US citizen students at Mizzou will need to check the country's web page to determine if you need to apply for a tourist visa

- Copy of all program participant passports due to Study Abroad Office by April 1st to remain on the program. If you are concerned about timing – have it expedited.

12. Application Deadline: April 7th

All applicants will need to interview for a spot on the program after they commit to the program in myStudyAbroad

13. Students Requesting Accommodations

If you are a student with a disability and anticipate requesting accommodations while studying abroad, we encourage you to notify the MU Office of Disability Services as early as possible (<http://disabilityservices.missouri.edu>). Early notification is essential to allow us time to ensure that appropriate arrangements and reasonable accommodations can be provided, both by the program and our Study Abroad partner organizations.

14. Student Financial Aid

Student Financial Aid

The courses qualify for financial aid. You may meet with a financial aid advisor in 11 Jesse Hall to review your financial aid options. A financial aid worksheet can be found in myStudyAbroad. It is highly recommended all students meet with their Financial Aid advisor to discuss paying for study abroad.

Scholarships

Students can apply for scholarships through ScholarshipUniverse (Missouri.scholarshipuniverse.com). The scholarship application is due February 15, 2026, and decisions will be made in late February.

Program Cancellation Policy for Student Financial Liability

I understand that in some special circumstances, I may not receive full academic credit for the study abroad program for which I have applied. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- Cancellation of the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- A decision by the University, in its sole discretion, that cancellation of the program is appropriate based on health, safety, or similar circumstances
- My inability to participate in or complete the program due to circumstances beyond the control of the University of Missouri
- My dismissal from the program

I understand that in any of these circumstances, I will be refunded only those costs that can be recovered by the University of Missouri or the University's partner program. If I have not been billed the program fee at the time of my withdrawal, I understand that I will be billed for any cancellation fees charged to the program.

The itinerary of this program may be modified by the Trulaske College of Business and/or the University of Missouri due to health, safety, or similar concerns. The withdrawal fees listed above will apply to students if this occurs. Transportation change fees and expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
