The nationally ranked accounting program at Mizzou offers students a competitive academic experience with impressive job placement rates. Students complete 150 hours of coursework to receive two degrees upon graduation — a Bachelor of Science in Accountancy and a Master of Accountancy.

Accountants engage in a wide variety of activities including preparing financial statements and recording business transactions, performing audits of public companies, advising clients on tax issues, providing advisory and consultancy services, and developing and using information systems to track financial performance and strategy. The field is competitive and challenging, but the rewards are worth it.

ABOUT TRULASKE

The Trulaske College of Business, founded in 1914, today enrolls more than 5,000 students. The college has four academic units – Accountancy, Finance, Management, and Marketing. The college offers an undergraduate degree in business administration, a full-time MBA degree and an execMBA for working professionals, a 150-hour program that confers both undergraduate and master’s degrees in accountancy, and PhD degrees in both accountancy and business administration. The college takes great pride in its graduates. More than 32,000 alumni are contributing their expertise to the public and private sectors in every state in the U.S. and in a host of foreign countries.

GLOBAL PREPARATION

The spectrum of opportunities for accountants ranges from domestic businesses transacting with foreign counterparts to multinational companies transacting with subsidiary locations all over the world. One thing they have in common — they need the advice of accountants to help make business decisions.

Global Internships

Several of the larger accounting firms offer global internship programs to their top recruits. MU Accountancy students have completed global internships in Germany, England, Sweden, Norway, Argentina, Netherlands, Singapore, Australia, and Ireland.

International Accounting

At the graduate level, we offer an international accounting class that includes an educational field trip abroad. The course covers major international accounting and management issues with professional site visits to learn concepts first-hand in locations such as London. During the trip, students are exposed to high-level executives who share their insights on the ever-changing face of accounting and financial reporting practices worldwide. The Trulaske College of Business also offers business-specific study abroad programs in places like China, Argentina, Chile, Czech Republic, India, New Zealand, Australia, Italy, and Spain.
