- B. Locations

Chengdu: is the capital of Sichuan Province, which is known as the "Heavenly State" and has a population of over 11 million people. Being the natural habitat of cute giant pandas it is located in the west of Sichuan Basin and in the center of Chengdu Plain. Benefiting from Dujiangyan Irrigation Project which was constructed in 256 B.C., Sichuan Province is reputed as "Tian Fu Zhi Guo," literally a place richly endowed with natural resources. The Min and Tuo Rivers, two branches of the Yangtze River, connected to forty other rivers, supply an irrigation area of more than 700 square kilometers (270.27 square miles) with 150-180 million kilowatts of water. Consisting of abundant mineral resources, the land is extremely fertile.

Deyang, located in the Sichuan province, is an industrial city with a population of 3.8 million residents. Deyang has a rich 1300-year history and is home to the world famous Sanxingdui cultural relics discovered in Guanghan City. The city has many cultural attractions such as Donghu Mountain Park, Deyang Confucian Temple, and the Stone Carving Wall. In Deyang students will experience daily life in a smaller city far removed from well-worn tourist paths and the international cities on the east coast. You will visit Dongdian Turbine, a school, local businesses, and cultural sites, many related to the Three Kingdoms period in Chinese history. Students will have the opportunity to stay in Chinese student dormitories at Sichuan Engineering and Technical College where they will have daily classes in Chinese language, Chinese calligraphy, and Taijiquan. There will be both structured and unstructured opportunities to get to know the Chinese students from the college.

Xi'an: Xi'an was one of the four great ancient capitals of China which spanned 13 dynasties (Zhou, Qin, Han, and the Tang). The historical Silk Road terminated at the city of Xi'an, the eastern-most city along the great transcontinental route connecting the great empirical court of China in the East with the Western Roman Empire. Also, Xi'an is completely surrounded by an ancient wall wide enough for four horse-drawn chariots to travel side by side around the city (25.7 km long and 12-16 m thick at the base). You can rent a bicycle and ride all the way around the wall and even stop to have a picnic and take in some of the beauty of the city.

- Terra Cotta Warriors. In Xi'an you will visit the Terra Cotta Warriors museum, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, called by some the 8th Wonder of the World. This underground wonder was discovered by a peasant farmer who uncovered some 211-206 BC pottery while digging for a well nearby the royal tomb in 1974. Archeologists have associated this significant find with the Qin Dynasty of Emperor Qin Shi Huang.

Beijing, the capital of China, is a city rich in history and culture, evident by the spectacular architectural structures built by emperors of the past. It is home to many incredible archeological discoveries. There will be a program dinner upon arrival and visits to some of the most famous sites in the world.

- Tiananmen Square: 20 minutes from your hotel and can hold one million people. You can view Mao Zedong's portrait above the entrance to the Forbidden City.
- Silk Market: bargain and negotiate for all kinds of goods (clothes, luggage, back packs, jewelry, etc.). You can find almost everything at the silk market, especially fabric and textiles of all kinds.
- Great Wall: The best preserved sections of the Great Wall are located within a 90-minute bus ride from the hotel location. You will be visiting the 2-3 kilometer section of the wall that you have seen in most of the typical photos shown in commercial publications.
- Old Summer Palace: Served as an Imperial Garden and contains the ruins of the Emperor's palace.
- Temple of Heaven: Contains an Imperial sacrificial altar.
- Forbidden City: Contains 980 rooms to amaze you for hours as you contemplate what took place there centuries earlier. In 1987, the Forbidden City was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site and designated as the "Imperial Palace of the Ming and Qing Dynasties" due to its significant place in the development of Chinese architecture and culture.

Tianjin: Tianjin is one of the four municipalities in China. Its name means "the place where the emperor crossed the river." In urban population, the city ranks sixth in China and its urban land area (Binhai New Area is not included) is fifth after Beijing, Shanghai, Wuhan and Guangzhou. Tianjin's urban area is located along the Hai River, which connects to the Yellow and Yangtze Rivers via the Grand Canal in Tianjin. Tianjin was once home to foreign concessions in the late Qing Dynasty and early Kuomintang (KMT) era. The municipality incorporates the coastal region of Tanggu, home to the Binhai New Area and the Tianjin Economic-Technological Development Area (TEDA).

Shanghai: This is the most vibrant and dynamically changing city in all of China. The Shanghai World Expo 2010 was held during the summer 2010, received more than 50 million visitors, and showcased 50 international exposition sites from multiple countries around the world. Shanghai received this honor because it is extremely cosmopolitan; still displaying lingering French and German charm from early last century. It has a vibrant economy consisting of a very active nightlife, many professional entertainment venues, and countless restaurants, shops, and coffee houses/cafes. The Pudong region on the other side of “old Shanghai” (with its famous Nanjing Road) is a modern urban renewal with more than 200 billion dollars of investment.

Hong Kong: Your program includes two days and three nights in fabulous Hong Kong with all of its glamour and international look and feel. English is widely used in Hong Kong, due primarily to the 156-year British rule of this territory. Hong Kong reverted back to Chinese rule on July 1, 1997. The Chinese government has essentially left Hong Kong alone to continue conducting its social, economic, and political life as it had under British rule. Take a ferry over to Macau, and experience original Portuguese architecture, food, and style of life. And for a fun evening, take a trip to the top of Victoria Peak on Hong Kong Island to see the amazing panoramic view of the Hong Kong skyline.

C. Lodging and Meals

Lodging in all locations will be in hotels. In Deyang students will have the opportunity of staying in student dormitories on the campus of Sichuan Engineering and Technical College.

You will need to buy most of your own meals, but you will find that food is extremely inexpensive in China. Meals typically consist of steamed white rice with a variety of stir-fried vegetables and various kinds of meat, such as pork, beef, chicken, and lots of seafood. China has its share of Western fast food places, as well as restaurants that serve European and North American cuisine.

Breakfast will be provided each day except for in Deyang and Hong Kong, and a few social program dinner events will be paid for by the program. The program schedule will outline which meals are included in the program fee.

D. Language and Culture

China is an exciting and culturally rich country to visit. It places great importance on education with a special emphasis on exposing and encouraging its citizens to learn the English language. The economy of China is a recognized phenomenon of economic change and development. Language development will be included in the Arts and Science language course and will be tailored to your level of Mandarin.

4. Course Offerings and Prerequisites

The University of Missouri (MU) will offer three courses (9 credits). The courses will satisfy BSBA graduation requirements for MU business students. Only one management course will count towards the emphasis for BSBA students. The other management course will count as emphasis support.
