IT’S TIME TO PUT YOUR BUSINESS EDUCATION INTO FULL GEAR.

Starting your college career is exciting — and just a little overwhelming. What could you do with a few extra tools to set you apart and help you kick off a great experience at Mizzou?

Consider the Dean’s Leadership Freshman Interest Group (FIG). Through a week long intensive workshop (see sidebar) and a learning community of your classmates, you’ll be sure to set yourself up for academic and leadership success.

FIGs are a university-wide program for first-year (or freshmen) students. FIG students take classes together and live in the same dorms to enhance their college experience. The FIGs are each focused on themes or majors and its members make up 30% of all spaces in the residence halls.

If you’re ready to connect, prepare and lead in business, then this is the FIG for you. Fill out an application today!

AUGUST 14-19, 2016

What you’ll get:

- A FULL WEEK OF HANDS ON LEADERSHIP TRAINING WITH A FOCUS ON THE SKILLS YOU’LL NEED TO BE A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS SCHOOL STUDENT.
- Study “7 Habits for Highly Effective College Students”
- Network with business school faculty to begin forming important relationships with your instructors.
- Meet you new academic partners in student services to make the most of the Professional Development Program, Business Career Services, and Undergraduate Advising.
- Study the characteristics of the most successful leaders.
- Get to know your FIG members and build strong bonds that will last through your college career.

COLLEGE IS COMPETITIVE. THIS IS YOUR CHANCE TO GET AHEAD!